Permit No. 51.

April 19, 1922.

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE ALASKA PENINSULA FISHERIES RESERVATION.

- - - - -

Under the provisions of the Executive Order of February 17, 1922, the Pacific American Fisheries, whose home office is South Bellingham, Washington, is hereby authorized to engage in the catching and canning of salmon for commercial purposes at King Cove, within the Ikatan District of the Alaska Peninsula Fisheries Reservation, during the calendar year 1922; Provided, That the pack of all species of salmon shall not exceed 100,000 cases, computed upon the basis of 48 one-pound cans per case; And Provided further, That the company may operate not to exceed nine salmon traps, of which five shall be in Morzhovoi Bay, two in Volcano Bay, and two in Pavlof Bay, and three beach seines at Thin Point, King Cove and Sannak; And Provided further, That the permittee shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the Alaska Peninsula Fisheries Reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.

This permit expires December 31, 1922, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

(Signed) Herbert Hoover
Secretary of Commerce.
